Common Errors in Everyday English

Saumya Sharma

9780199466757 | PB | ₹ 180.00

The book is not just about common errors. It includes some cleverly deceptive mistakes, which we commonly make, including often-mispronounced words. It also covers grammatical errors, frequently used and confused expressions and faux pas that are made unknowingly. It can surely act as a worthwhile guide, a fact-checking resource and an easy-to-use reference tool. The book will be of immense support in basic writing skills.

-Michael Shane Calvert

About Oxford University Press India

Oxford University Press (OUP) is a department of the University of Oxford. It furthers the University's objective of excellence in research, scholarship, and education by publishing worldwide.

OUP is the world's largest university press with the widest global presence. It publishes in many countries, in more than 40 languages, and in a variety of formats – print and digital. OUP products cover an extremely broad academic and educational spectrum, and it aims to make content available to users in a format that suits them best.

In fulfilling the Press's objective to further research, scholarship, and education, OUP India provides path-breaking digital solutions, while continuing to publish over 400 new books and revised editions every year. OUP India's publishing programme covers school courses, higher education texts, academic and reference works, titles of general interest, bilingual dictionaries, atlases, adult ELT materials, and digital and assessment products.

Established in 1912, OUP India has grown to be one of the largest publishers in the region, with a strong presence in India and the neighbouring countries, including Nepal, Sri Lanka, and Bangladesh. Headquartered at Noida, it has regional offices in Delhi, Kolkata, Chennai, and Mumbai.

OUP India is committed to the continuous development of its publishing programmes, covering both print and digital, to meet the growing and varying learning needs of students, teachers, scholars, and general readers in the region.
